☹️. Fun little game. this was one of the most upsettingly boring things I have ever played. extremely unappealing in every way, save one. steam cards.. Got it for 0.12€ from a bundle. At that price i will not complain. Simple and fun timewaster.. Si la verdad es una experiencia de juego que va mas alla de todo lo que conocemos hoy en dia, como si una bocanada de aire fresco te viniera directa a la cara y te dijera soy el♥♥♥♥♥amo. game is ok, but only ok because i got it for free.. still a better love story than twilight. funny game !!! Best game of all time. game is ok, but only ok because i got it for free.

in this game you have to shoot with arrows and the middle pad is knocking your ball.

You must hit green wall, if you hit Red, you lose health.

It is simple game but gets tired of it rly fast. Cheap game easy to get achievements and cards. I got this from a gleam giveaway, though I cannot recall the sponser. Either way, thanks for the game. ^_^ )

Freebie. A game that is obviously not free, yet should be free. It's $1 for a single minigame. You have a blue, rotating bar, green borders, red borders, and 2 ball launchers you control (They're locked in place, you simply fire).

It's well-programmed, though that's the only real benefit I can say this. Along with that, it's a decent minigame...I legitimately sunk 17 minutes into this title until I got the rest of the achievements. At that point, there was no longer a purpose to play this particular title.

The 3 music tracks are ear-grating and the "epilepsy" mode simply makes someone sick with all the spinning. If you want to play it, please do yourself a favor and play without music on the normal mode. Also, you don't HAVE to score 50 in a row. You are allowed 3 HP. 2 free mistakes and the "gameover" health point.

Do I recommend Freebie? Hard to really say. Considering that you're paying $1 for a single minigame, I'm going to have to say "No" on this piece. I don't HATE this title, but from the eyes of a consumer there is bound to be a disappointed perspective.

3.5/10 Good to pass a little time, but after 10 minutes, you'll be bored.. Have extra time then spend it on this game #nice # game. Simple game that once you get how it works, can entertain for a bit. Easy to 100%. Worth a try.
